

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MINNESOTA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Case No. 23-CR-82 (NEB/TNL)

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER CONFIRMING
DATE CERTAIN TRIAL DATE

SHARON ROSS,

Defendant.

The Court asked the parties in all of the related “Feeding Our Futures” criminal cases to meet and confer regarding trial dates. The Court has considered the letter filed in this case by the Government (ECF No. 34) and its preference for the order in which the cases should be tried.

In this case, United States v. Sharon Ross, the Court set a date certain trial date on August 10, 2023 for January, 22, 2024, giving the parties over five months to prepare for trial. Though the Government has requested that United States v. Abdiaziz Shafii Farah, et al. (22-cr-124) be tried first, the Court intends to keep the January 22, 2024 trial date for this case. United States v. Farah is not trial-ready, as it is still awaiting the Report and Recommendation to be filed on pretrial motions. When the remaining related “Feeding our Futures” cases are trial-ready, the Court will issue trial orders.

Dated: November 2, 2023

BY THE COURT:

s/Nancy E. Brasel

Nancy E. Brasel

United States District Judge